Should there be no award or adjudication in this public sale the same may be awarded to the creditor for the entire amount of the debt if this is equal to or less than the amount of the minimum bid of the third auction, and crediting this amount to the amount owed if it is more.

d) The United States Marshal shall not accept in payment of the property to be sold anything but United States currency or certified checks in his name, except in case the property is sold and adjudicated to the plaintiff, in which case the amount of the bid made by said plaintiff shall be credited and deducted from its credit; said plaintiff being bound to pay in cash or certified check only any excess of its bid over the secured indebtedness when remaining unsatisfied.

e) All junior lienholders shall pay in cash or in certified check the total amount of previous liens, and any sum in excess of said previous liens shall be credited to their respective liens.

f) The United States Marshal may, either personally or by some person designated by him to act in his name and his authority, adjourn the sale from time to time, without further publication, but only by order of this Court.

g) Upon the confirmation of said sale by this Court the United States Marshal shall execute and deliver a deed of conveyance of the property sold to the purchaser thereof.

h) The purchaser shall be entitled to the delivery of the property sold and its physical possession and the United States Marshal may deliver said possession through the eviction of the occupant of the property without the need of any further order, in accordance with law.

i) The Property Registrar of the corresponding Property Registry of Puerto Rico shall proceed to the recording of the judicial sale deed in favor of the purchaser, free of any liens subsequent to the date of the execution of the foreclosed mortgage.

SO ORDERED in San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 5th day of January, XXXXX 1998.
